In the reference cited the Deputy Accountant – General, (Pensions), Office of the Accountant –General (A.&.E), A.P. Hyderabad, had brought to the notice of Government that in a number of cases where disciplinary proceedings are pending the pension papers are sent to Accountant General duly signed by the pension sanctioning authorities on page 3 of the pension Forms. But it is mentioned in the covering letters that the Pensionary benefits should not be released until further reference is received. It is also reported that A.G's office is receiving a lot of such cases in respect of Land Revenue and public works Departments. The A.G. has suggested to Government that they will be compelled to return all such cases to the Departments for re-submission of the cases regarding categorical entry on page 3 itself about the pendency of disciplinary proceedings or otherwise . The Deputy A.G. also requested for issue of suitable instructions to the Heads of the Departments.

As per Rule 52 of A.P.R.P. Rules 1980, wherever Departmental proceedings or juridical proceedings are pending only provisional pension is payable. No Gratuity shall be paid to the retired Government Servants until the conclusion of Departmental or Judicial proceedings and issue of final orders thereon. The Departments while forwarding such pension cases to Accountant -General , should invariably mention in page 3 of pension Forms that Departmental/ judicial proceedings are pending and that only provisional pension may be released. sanction order of the competent authority for provisional pension should also be sent along with the proposals for release of provisional pension.

The pension sanctioning Authorities are competent to sanction provisional pension to Non- Gazetted Officers. Provisional pension to Gazetted Officers shall be sanctioned by Government only.

If the above instructions are not followed and if the pendency of Departmental or Judicial proceedings is not mentioned in page 3 of the pension Forms, the A.G. will be at liberty to release full Pensionary benefits presuming the sanction. The Departments in case of any disciplinary proceedings pending against any official, should inform the A.G. prior to the date of retirement of the official that Pensionary benefits should not be released.

All the Heads of Offices/ Heads of Departments / Pension Sanctioning Authorities are requested to follow the above instructions scrupulously to avoid any over payment of Pensionary benefits where Departmental or Judicial proceedings are pending.

All the Departments of secretariat including revenue and P.W.D are requested to bring those instructions to the notice of all the officers working under their control for strict compliance.
